This chapter introduces the sounds "ou" and "ei".

The little booklet "Bettie en Jannie" fits in after this. The A5 booklet can be downloaded and printed up. Colour in the cover, cover the book in plastic, and your students will love it more than just the A4 pages that appear at the end of this chapter, where the story is reproduced together with some relevant exercises.

The first story, "Jannie", needs the sound "j", introduced in the previous chapter.

The next two, "Plaas toe" and "Oop en toe", need "ui".

The next story, "Stoute kinders", needs "ou", and the last one, "Die Hansies", needs "ei".

As before,  usually means a colour.

In this chapter, a new word is "blou" .

As before, I have included a few Bible verses, because I have found that some of my adult students really enjoy them.

1 Johannes 1 : 7, 9

Die bloed van Jesus Christus reinig ons van alle sonde.

As ons ons sondes bely,

Hy is getrou en regverdig om ons die sondes te vergewe en ons van alle ongeregtigheid te reinig.

The little booklet "Bettie en Jannie" fits in here. Print it up as an A5 booklet, rather than using the A4 pages reproduced here. Let your students colour in the cover, then cover it in plastic, and they will love to have a little book of their own.

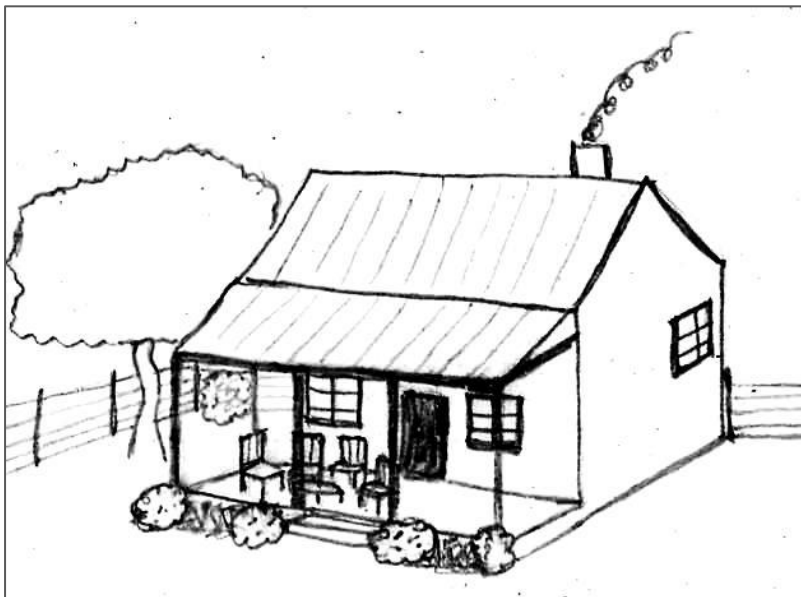

The first story needs the sound "j". The next two, need "ui".

The next story, "Stoute kinders", needs "ou", and the last story, "Die Hansies", needs "ei".

This last story has the word "vinger" in it, anticipating the next chapter which introduces the sound "ng".

Interspersed between the pages of text are a few related exercises.

Hulle is baie klein en baie mooi.

Hulle hardloop na die draad toe, en blêr, "Mê, mê, mê."
